

Part-III

Do's and Don'ts

After Arrival

Do's

1. Do understand that all expatriate workers in Saudi Arabia are expected to strictly follow the local rules, regulations and customs. It therefore important for anyone living Arabia to familiarize themselves with local rules and regulations, working and living conditions and labour laws, etc. One may visit the websites of the websites of the Indian Embassy, Riyadh/Consulate, Jeddah and Saudi Ministry of Labour for this purpose.
2. Register yourself with the Indian Embassy/Consulate by sending SMS/Whatsapp or email giving your name, passport number, mobile number, visa number, location, sponsor's name, address and contact number to the Embassy: Whataspp/mobile No. (+966-544205063 /Email: sscw@indianembassy.org.sa)/or Consulate:Whataspp/Mobile No.+966-55612230/E-mail: iwrc@cgijeddah.com. Any subsequent changes to the contact details, as and when they occur may also be communicated to the Embassy/Consulate.
3. Keep with you the address and contact details (telephone/mobile numbers) of your Sponsor and Recruiting Agent (RA) as well as the Indian Embassy/Consulate
4. Keep with you a copy of the Employment Contract signed by the employer and you.
5. Always carry the original iqama with you.
6. Understand your rights and obligations as per the labour contract.
7. Do understand that a worker is expected to work with the sponsor for the entire duration of the contract, usually two years, before become eligible for leave or final exit. Requests for premature return even on family emergency, health reasons, etc. are not entertained by the sponsor. In exceptional cases where they agree to release the worker prematurely, sponsors invariably demand to be compensated for the recruitment expenditure incurred by them.
8. Be aware that the Kingdom follows the Hijri calendar, which is about 11 days shorter than Gregorian calendar. The expiry dates of visa, iqama, exit/re-entry visa, etc., may be cross-checked well in time in order ensure their renewal on time and to avoid inadvertent overstayal, etc. resulting in extreme inconvenience.
9. Contact the Ministry of Labour (toll free helpline no. 19911) to your register complaint in case if any labour problem such as (a)the employer not providing you the residence permit (Iqama) within 90 days of arrival, or(b) dispute with the sponsor, harassment/non-payment of salaries, violation of the terms of labour contract, refusal to grant leave/exit on completion of the contract, etc.
10. Make sure to take copies of any new documents and keep copies of the same with you as well as send them to your family.
11. In case you are travelling on vacation, etc. ensure that your passport is valid for a minimum of six months from your expected date of travel.
12. Exercise extreme caution while using internet and social media so as not to break the local/cyber laws – e.g. browsing/forwarding of objectionable material/contents from any prohibited sites on the internet; sharing/'liking' of pictures/posts on the social media, of a religious nature could be construed as blasphemous, offensive to religious/social sensitivities, critical of political system, etc. - as such acts could lead to arrest, criminal case, punishment and deportation.
13. Do give sufficient notice (preferably 60 days in advance of the expiry of the contract) of your intention to leave the Kingdom on completion of the contract), if you wish to return to India. Otherwise, it is likely that the existing contract could be got renewed for a similar term.
14. If your contract is not going to be renewed, you must ask the sponsor to send you back to upon completion of the contract - Overstayal of visa is illegal resulting in punishment including fine, imprisonment and deportation.

Don'ts
